OUR EASTER SEASON LUMBER DELIVERIES

are very heavy this year. Building operations of all kinds are in full swing and we are getting more than our share of lumber orders, especially from the most experienced and expert builders. They know good lumber and lumber values. That's why they do their buying here. There should be a hint in that fact for you.

BAUGH-M'CLURE

Beautiful Church Wedding At Mt.
Carmel Marked With Simplicity.

Among the noted spring marriages was that of Miss Lula, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Baugh of East Second street, and Mr. Barney E. Mc-Clure of Louisville, Ky. The ceremony took place in the Mt. Carmel Christian church at 12:30 Sunday. The church was beautifully decorated by girl friends of the bride, where she was the organist for several years.

Just before the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. D. M. Carpenter of Mt.
Carmel, sang "O, Promise Me," very sweetly. Miss Maude Baugh of Portsmouth, O., cousin of the bride, presided at the organ. At the first note of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the ushers entered the church, composed of Messrs. Maurice Politt, Arvin and Harvey Breeze and Giles Rice. Then Messrs. John Heffernan of Covington, and Edward Piper, as groomsmen, and Misses Opal and Gertrude Baugh, two of our city's most popular teachers, and sisters of the bride, in dainty creations of silver cloak and lace trimming, with large white hats, carrying sweet peas, sent a ripple of admiration over the waiting guests, which swelled to a murmur of delight as Miss Amy Baugh, youngest sister of the bride and maid of honor, in a lace dress with blue messaline girdle and folds, with blue polk-dot bonnet of tulle, carrying sweet peas, stepped in her place. Then Rev. Harding of Dayton, an old friend of the family, followed by the groom with his best man, Mr.
Newell Stickley, next.

Then a sudden soft stillness; then came the bride on the arm of her only brother, Mr. G. A. Baugh. Her dress of ivory satin, lace and georgette crepe was a creation of perfect loveliness, her bouquet was of orchids and bride's roses. The only jewel worn by the bride was a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Immediately after the ceremony they entered automobiles and were driven rapidly away, reaching the bride's home in time to make a hurried exchange to a travelling suit of a new shade of tan called "rookie," and leaving on the 3:17 for an eastward trip.

The bride is a beautiful and accomplished girl with a host of friends.
Mr. McClure is a son of the late Dr.
James S. McClure of near Louisville, and a man worthy of the good fortune come to him. He also will be remembered as the popular auctioneer at the Warmers and Planters warehouse here two years ago.

They will spend their summer and fall in South and North Carolina, where Mr. McClure has a fine position with the loose leaf warehouse.

CHARLES F. TAYLOR

Well Known Mason Countian Died Suddenly At His Home In Washington Sunday Evening.

Mr. Charles Forman Taylor, aged 70 years, was found dead Sunday evening about 6:30 o'clock on the farm of Mrs. C. W. Forman at Washington; having died of heart failure.

Mr. Taylor had been ill for some time with heart trouble, but Sunday morning he said that he felt better than he had for some time. About 4 o'clock he mounted his horse to take a ride over the farm of Mrs. C. W. Forman, his sister-in-law, with whom he has made his home since the death of his wife some twenty years ago. When he did not return in a reasonable time Mr. Forman sent her son William to investigate, and Mr. Taylor was found lying at the side of his horse, having been dead some time.

Deceased was born and reared at Washington and has lived there his entire life. He was a consistent member of the Washington Presbyterian church and was a man of integrity in all things. His friends were numbered by the score and his sudden death has cast a pall of gloom over the entire community in which he lived.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs.
Mary Caldwell of Sharpsburg, and one brother, Mr. George Taylor of Washington, and a number of other relatives. His late wife was a sister of Mrs. R. B. Owens of this city.

The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

11 TO 0

Leaguers Defeat Regulars In First Exhibition Game of the Season Sunday.

Jim Jones & Company easily administered a 11 to 0 defeat to the Mayaville Regulars Sunday afternoon in the first exhibition game of the season.

Manager Jones gave all the rookies a chance to show their goods and they did so in a pleasing manner. From the manner in which they played there will be no trouble in picking a team.

The Regulars did their best to pull a winner, but they were simply outclassed in all departments.

The score:
Regulars . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 Leaguers . . . . . 0 1 0 4 1 1 4 0 x—11 Batteries—Regulars, Frost, Bratton, Darnell, Dresel and Dice; Leaguers, Skinner, Surrency, Singleton, Mueller and Dugan. Umpire—Trieble.

CANTATA REPEATED.

The Easter cantata which was rendered on East Sunday at the Third Street M. E. church, was repeated on Sunday afternoon by the request of a number of people who were unable to hear it before. A large crowd was present to hear it and it was thoroughly enjoyed.

CULLEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cullen of East Fifth street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy.

SAW MOVIES FOR FIRST TIME SATURDAY.

Mr. Samuel Purnis, wife and son, of Adams county, Ohio, saw a moving picture show for the first time in their life Saturday afternoon. They were passing the Gem Theater when Mr. Purnis was attracted by one of the comedy posters and remarked that he had never seen a show of any kind. The management of the show extended him an invitation to attend the matinee, accompanied by his wife and son.

Did they go? Does a duck like water? Of course.

They enjoyed the program immensely and upon leaving, Mr. Purnis told Manager Mills that he would never forget it as long as he lived.

SAM ELLIS

Has Narrow Escape From Death At Hands of John Cobb At Ball Park Sunday Morning.

Sam Ellis, groundskeeper at the local ball park, had a narrow escape from death Sunday morning about 11:30 o'clock at the hands of John Cobb.

A bunch of boys and men had been loafing around the park all morning and finally told by Ellis that they would have to get out. Cobb was the last one to leave the park and as he was going out he turned on Ellis and slashed him across the waist with a big knife.

Ellis received only a slight cut on the stomach owing to the fact that he had on very heavy clothing.

Constable James McNamara was called and placed Cobb under arrest and he will be tried this afternoon on a charge of larceny, as he has been acting very queerly recently.

Word has been received here by friends that Mr. Charles E. Smith, a former Mayaville boy, was taken suddenly ill at his home in Cleveland, O., Saturday and his death is expected.

Miss Thelma Peddicord of Portsmouth, spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Cora Peddicord, superintendent of the City Mission.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Evans have returned to this city after spending a most delightful winter with their son, Mr. Joseph N. Evans and family, at Houston, Texas.

City Attorney John M. Calhoun returned Sunday afternoon from Springfield, Ill., where he was called by the death of his uncle, Major John S.
Hurt.

ARRESTED HERE

Glenn Yates Is Wanted In Charleston, W. Va., On Grand Larceny Charge.

Glenn Yates, who claims his home as Manchester, O., was arrested here Saturday morning by Officer Dudley Fizer on a warrant charging him with grand larceny.

Yates is said to have stolen a wrist watch, diamond ring, pistol and other articles from a lady in Charleston and that he disposed of the articles for money in this city and elsewhere.

The watch and ring have been located and will be recovered. It is not known, however, what he did with the other articles.

When Yates was placed under arrest Saturday morning he had in his possession twelve quarts of whisky which he said was procured by him in Dayton and Cincinnati on Wednesday.

Yates claims to be innocent and says he will go back to West Virginia to stand trial without requisition papers. The chief of police of Charleston was notified of Yates' capture and wrote back that he would acquire requisition papers and send for Yates immediately.

Mr. S. J. Robinson has sold out his interest in the Star Specialty Company to Mr. Kiefer G. Miller.

Mrs. H. S. Howland left Sunday for a visit to relatives and friends at Philadelphia, Pa.

Your Boy Now Needs a New Suit

Would you have him well-dressed?—In clothes that present a handsome appearance and still resist the onslaught of the youthful energy and vigor, that have ripped seams and buttons that stay on?

"HECHINGER'S CLOTHES" FOR BOYS are the Ultimate in apparel that satisfies. The wear is guaranteed. SUITS $5.00 to $12.00.

With every Boy's Suit sold we give a handsome ball or bat.

SUITS AND COATS

The best we have ever had at their respective prices. This should be understood—and expected. It is a poor business indeed which cannot show improvement from year to year. Contrary to many prophecies these new suits and coats, although different (and we think better) in style, are not freakish. Lack of dyes has not as yet resulted in a meagre assortment of colors. Nor have we found it necessary to advance prices.
We are confident you will be pleased with an inspection of them. Coats $5.00 to $17.50. Suits $15.00 to $35.00.

WILL PROBATED.

Saturday in the Mason County Court a paper bearing date of March 25, 1916, and purporting to be the last will and testament of B. H. Farrow, deceased, was produced in court and ordered filed. The due execution of said paper was proven by the signatures of J. B. Durrett and J.

N. Kehoe, attesting witnesses thereto, and was admitted to probate.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. Dan Perrine Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members urged to be present.
